SECURITIES OWNED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Compiled from latest reports received by the Treasury

AUGUST 31, 1924

[Table of securities owned by the United States Government is presented here, listing securities such as United States Government bonds, stocks, and notes, held by the Treasury as of August 31, 1924.]

MEMORANDUM

[Notations regarding the memorandum are included, such as dates and comments regarding the securities held.]

Note: This statement is made up on the basis of the face value of the securities held as described by the United States, with due allowance for any deficit. To the extent that the security is not held in the custody of the United States, the statement is made as it appears reported from other Government departments and establishments. The figures given for securities held by the United States are as of the date on which the reports were received, and may include and may not include certificates returned to the United States for redemption under the Banking Act of 1929, as amended. This statement is not published in the Federal Register, and the 30th day of September each year. The figures for this statement are compiled from the Quarterly Statements of Securities Held by the United States, issued by the Director General of Railroads under the provisions of Section 12 of the Federal Central Art, approved March 21, 1918, and are subject to revision as the Quarterly Statements are revised. The amounts shown are those as of various dates up to 1925.
